System Manual
For this program once you run it goes to goes through all of the mutators or setters which set what the variables are equal too. So for my program the coder enters them in manually in a text file then changes the path where it is marked if necessary. When you enter in the variable information it then goes to be ouputed to the HTML file in the socialite.cpp file.